GENESEE REGIONAL WOMEN'S HALL OF FAME NOMINATION PROCESS

A. Qualifications for Admission

1. Candidates for admission to the Genesee Regional Women's Hall of Fame must have achieved prominence within Genesee County. They may be living or deceased. Individuals or groups who have contributed to the history of the region are eligible.
2. Nominations will be received generally in terms of the following:
 - a. Distinctive accomplishments in the candidate's chosen field of endeavor, professional or otherwise.
 - b. Contributions made of an enduring nature to the social, cultural, economic, or political well being of the community.
 - c. Service given or commitment made which significantly advanced the status of women in society.
 - d. Qualities of character and personal ideals that would serve as a positive influence on the youth of Genesee County and as a role model for other women.
3. Candidates may have achieved distinction in any field of endeavor. The Following are listed by way of example:
 - a. Agriculture
 - b. Arts and Letters
 - c. Athletics
 - d. Business and Industry
 - e. Civil Rights
 - f. Education
 - g. Family Life
 - h. Health Care/Human Services
 - i. Labor
 - j. Law and Government
 - k. Religion and Philosophy
 - l. Science and Technology
 - m. Other:

B. Related Review Considerations

1. Honors granted the Genesee Regional Women's Hall of Fame are described as "Life Achievement Awards." As the name implies, the award is intended to reflect the culmination of a career of dedicated service or accomplishment and not merely recognition of the candidate's current level of achievement.

2. Of special significance in the criteria for the award is the phrase "of an enduring nature." Regardless of whether the candidate is presented in historical or contemporary honors category (see below), there should be a marked sense that the accomplishments and/or contributions evidenced are of such special significance as likely to be thought outstanding when reflected upon from the perspective of future generations.

C. How Nominations Can Be Made

1. Nominations may be made by individuals or by representatives of organizations or groups. A candidate may also nominate herself.
2. All nominations must be submitted on approved nomination forms, a copy of which is attached. Additional copies may be secured on request.
3. Nominations may be made in either of two categories: historical or contemporary. If the candidate is no longer living the Historical Honors Division would be the appropriate category for the nomination. If otherwise, the nomination should be made in the Contemporary Honors Division.
4. All nominations are either to be typed on the attached form or printed in the same format from a computer. A single 8 1/2" x 11" sheet of paper (one side only) may also be included. If extensive additional documentation is submitted, it will be used to form a file record of the candidate, but will not be used in the judging process.
5. Nominations forms must be postmarked by January 21, 2018. Nominations received after this date will be held for consideration in the year following.

D. How Honorees Are Chosen

The selection into the Genesee Regional Women's Hall of Fame is made by a vote of the "Selection Committee." This committee is made up of members of the Zonta Club of Flint chosen for their awareness and sensitivity to the contributions of women and their knowledge of history or other special fields.

The names of a given year's honorees will be announced upon completion of the actual selection process. The honorees awards program, open to the public, is then scheduled, the details of which may be secured from the Zonta Club of Flint.

BE CERTAIN TO FILL OUT THE FORM COMPLETELY AND TO SIGN THE FORM WHERE REQUESTED. UNSIGNED FORMS WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED, NOR WILL FORMS WHICH DO NOT MEET THE TECHNICAL STANDARDS SET FORTH ABOVE.
