

Zonta Club of Flint has a mission to support the goals of Zonta International and to improve the status of women in Genesee County. This club has been in existence since 1923 and has benefitted the community through their donations of time and funding to several local charities. The Zonta Club of Flint is a 501(c) 3 and is a worldwide service organization of executives in business and other professional working to improve the legal, political, economic, and professional status of women.

The Genesee Regional Women’s Hall of Fame (GRWHOF) is in our 10th year honoring those women in our community who have made a difference and changed the history of Genesee County. The GRWHOF recognizes the accomplishments of Genesee County women, past and present. The Zonta Club of Flint will strive to bring a greater visibility to the roles that women have played in Genesee County history and acknowledge that women impact and improve our lives every day.

Your participation as a sponsor associates you with charitable excellence and sends a clear message that you and your business is dedicated to improving, enhancing, and empowering the lives of women in the community. As a sponsor, your donation will aid the Zonta Club of Flint the assistance to provide support to many charities and become a more influential advocate. As a sponsor, your company benefits by:

- Improving Visibility through marketing
